In Conversation with Ryuichi Sakamoto

(Japan)

23 May, Thu, 7.30pm

SOTA Concert Hall

Free with registration at sifa.sg. A maximum of two tickets are permitted per registration.

Patrons are advised to be seated 15 minutes before the programme begins (Unclaimed seats will be given away to walk-in patrons or patrons on wait-list.)

In this highly-anticipated talk, join Ryuichi Sakamoto, one of the 21st century's most prolific and influential musicians, in an intimate conversation.

The Oscar-winning Japanese composer will speak fluidly about his life and career, from sharing his passionate exploration of the sounds of everyday objects, his involvement with various social causes, to his deepest personal reflections on life and mortality. He discusses the creation of his latest album, async, which draws from his own battle with cancer.

Don't miss this opportunity to meet Ryuichi Sakamoto whose over four-decade long career has been pivotal in shaping the landscape of contemporary music.
